What job is it?

Match the jobs to the description

1) I have to speak English every day, I don't have to speak Japanese. I mustn't get angry with students and I have to help students learn. Who am I?

2) I have to work at night and I have good eyesight. I have to travel all over the world. I mustn't drink alcohol when I'm working but I don't have to buy lunch because attendants give me meals. Who am I?

3) I have to cut and wash hair every day. I have to stand up all day but I don't have to wear a uniform. In my salon I have to cut women's hair but I don't have to cut men's hair. Who am I?

A hair dresser, An English teacher, A pilot

Obligation

Have to Something that is necessary. A rule or law

Don't have to Something that is not necessary/ important

Mustn't Something you cannot do!

* 'Must has the same meaning as 'have to'.

Must is more personal 'i must go on a diet, I must lose some weight!'

* don't have to and mustn't can be confusing but:

don't have to = ok to do!

mustn't = not ok!

Example

You don't have to wear a tie at work (but it's ok if you do wear a tie)

You mustn't wear shoes inside a Japanese home (it's not ok to do this!)
